

OVER 200,000 People Buy a New Home Every Month!

New Homeowners are eager and ready to buy what they need to settle into their new dwellings. This puts home-related service companies in a prime position to create new customers and build new relationships.

In developing our new homeowner list, infoUSA® uses real estate information to identify new owners and the details of their purchase. Many home improvement services, home security, medical, utilities and others rely on this database time and time again.
